

The Salvation Army USA
Eastern Territory

MISSING PERSONS BUREAU

An international social service with a purpose to reunite family members.

HISTORY

As families became fragmented the need to reunite them became part of our mission. This service was first established in 1885 in London as The Family Tracing Service.

PURPOSE

To bring reunion, reconciliation and renewed hope to families.

Reuniting Families one at a time

STATISTICS

- The Salvation Army is instrumental in reuniting thousands of families.
- The Missing Persons office opens approximately 600 new cases and locates an average of 350 people annually.

APPLICATION PROCESS

All inquiries should be directed to the Missing Persons/Family Tracing office in The Salvation Army's Eastern Territory.

An Inquiry Application Form must be completed and sent to the given address accompanied by the necessary documents and fees.

The Salvation Army
Missing Persons
440 West Nyack Road
West Nyack, NY 10994

The application is then reviewed to determine if the inquiry falls within the scope of our investigation program and sufficient information has been provided to enable us to conduct a search.

Inquirers will be advise by mail concerning the status of the application. If a case is not accepted, appropriate referrals will be advised.

PRIVACY POLICY

Our National Policy recognizes the right of privacy. An individual's whereabouts is not divulged without his/her consent. No information will be released without the permission of the missing person.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Each request for assistance will be reviewed on an individual basis and given every consideration. Searching for a missing person can be a lengthy process.

Please be advised that The Salvation Army reserves the right to accept, reject or to assign priority to any application based on the reason for the inquiry, the completeness of information provided and the feasibility of conducting searches.

MISSING PERSONS BUREAU

The Salvation Army is unable to conduct searches under the following conditions:

- Persons missing less than 3 months
- Adoption cases
- Persons under 18 years of age
- Inheritance or estate searches
- Legal Matters
- Genealogical searches

Mail Info

THE SALVATION ARMY
MISSING PERSONS
440 WEST NYACK ROAD
WEST NYACK NY 10994

Phone

(800) 315-7699

Web

SACONNECTS.ORG/MISSING

Email

MISSINGPERSONS@USE.SALVATIONARMY.ORG

The Salvation Army Mission Statement

The Salvation Army, an international movement, is an evangelical part of the universal Christian church. Its message is based on the Bible. Its ministry is motivated by the love of God. Its mission is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and to meet human needs in His name without discrimination